A message from Pastor Randy . . . continued

The family gathered and offered support to one another; welcomed the strangers, shouldered the grief of each other, shared the joy of the gospel together, and worshipped the head of the family – Jesus Christ.

It is good to be home! It is nice to sleep in my own bed, to drive familiar streets, to eat familiar foods, to see familiar faces; but it was also nice to meet the extended family and to know that wherever we go, the family gathers in love.

God's peace,

Pastor R.

A message from Pastor Randy:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

It is good to be home! Over the coming weeks I am sure Cindy and I will share many of our travel adventures with you. (If she asks you to look at some pictures, make sure you have the whole day.) We had a wonderful trip with a memorable ending, but it sure is good to be home. I have not seen anyone yet, so I have not heard how things went or what is going on, but I have no doubt they are cruising along perfectly – that's what families do. And as a church, we are members of an amazing family, Christ's family.

I was really reminded of our membership in the greater family of Christ over the last several weeks. We attended a Roman Catholic mass in St. Joseph's Cathedral in Carrickmacross. We attended a Church of Ireland service in a small centuries old chapel outside the town. We saw (and Cindy took pictures of) active parishes and ruins dating back more than a thousand years – all of them attesting to the family of Christ and its continuing on in times of strife and times of joy. In our absence, we quietly mourned the passing of Tom Brown, and upon our return, participated in the funeral of a dear friend in New York. And in every instance, in every mighty cathedral, in every small chapel, even in many of the crumbling ruins, the family gathered.
