

There will be visitation and memorial service at Trinity for Judith Judy, who died on Sunday, August 6th. Visitation will be Friday, 5pm to 7pm, followed by a Committal Service at 7:00pm.

The Food Pantry needs some new volunteers. It is a great experience with a great group of people! For more information contact Robin Snyder 304-993-4734.

Habitat build dates are:

Saturday, August 26,
Saturday, September 9, and
Saturday, November 4.

Please sign the sheet on the bulletin board and the best date for you to work.

PLEASE keep the church office informed of any address changes and/or phone numbers. Thank you!

Sunflower Box: On Sunday, August 13 & Sunday, August 20, we will collect fresh fruit & vegetables for Sojourner's. If you cannot participate on those dates but would like to help out, monetary donations designated for the sunflower box are always welcome!

Trinity's Table last Sunday

It was a very quiet night at Trinity's Table.

We served turkey, stuffing, gravy, hard-boiled eggs, green beans, peaches, bread and butter, desserts and juice in-house. In our take-home boxes, we served spaghetti, apricots, green beans, cookies, and bread, for a total of 280 meals.

Sometimes, we have a few more "go" meals than we have guests...so instead of wasting them, we deliver them to one of the shelters here in town. We really try not to throw away food!

We will provide meals to the kiddos at Second Avenue Community Center this week -- chicken pot pies and raisins and other goodies!

Thanks to our regular contributors: Sugar Pie Bakery, Spilman, Thomas & Battle, Charleston Bread, and all of the volunteers who make this meal possible every week!

Pastor's message continued . . .

We are in the beginning stages of reviewing our evangelical / evangelism life together. Give us your thoughts. Join us as we brainstorm our needs and desires. Our first meeting is in the lounge, Sunday, August 27, following our Sunday worship service (11:15?). Give us your thoughts.

God's peace,
Pastor R.

A message from Pastor Randy:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

For several weeks now, Ashley has been recording my sermons and live streaming them on our Facebook page. Frankly, I am now exactly sure what any of that means or how it is accomplished. What I do know is that by Sunday afternoon there are more people that have watched my sermon online than there were that attended church on Sunday morning. And the post continues to receive hits throughout the week – indeed, hundreds of hits. I am thinking some of those might be the bishop or others preparing for my heresy trial, but certainly not all of them. There are hundreds of hits: hundreds of people maybe hearing the gospel for the first time; hundreds listening to a Facebook live stream of a sermon at Trinity; hundreds hearing of Jesus and his promises of hope and love.

It is a bit disconcerting, humbling and just plain scary – not the heresy trial part, the hundreds part. It also makes me wonder, how else might we make 'the story' more accessible? How else might we respond to the changing world with a story as old as civilization and a hope as fresh as tomorrow? We live in a world that needs to hear 'the story' more than ever – what can we do to make it happen? I feel so inadequate and ill prepared to do that, but that is what I am called; that is what we are all called to do.

Have you visited our Facebook page? Have you watched a sermon? Do you have any ideas about how we might make 'the story' even more accessible to those who cannot, or will not come to the building to hear 'the story'? How can we: "Shout it from the mountaintop" in this, the 21st century?
